“SEEKING THE LOST”

Jesus didn't tell us to build a nice structure, put a sign out front announcing our meeting times, and say, "Ya'll Come!" But He did instruct us to "seek and save the lost" everywhere (Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15-16). Jesus set the best example in Luke 15 as the Good Shepherd leaving the 99 to find the one that was lost. "Seeking" is not a casual glance. Satan easily hides souls by removing them from society and stashing them behind walls, razor wire, and iron bars—out of sight, out of mind. "Seeking the Lost" is this year's challenging theme for the national workshop. We trust you will be present for every aspect of this experience commemorating year 50.
